A DENOCRATIC RALLYING SONG FOR THE FOUTH.

AIR-Rosin the Bow.

Come along to this Democratic meeting, Come manhood and come ludies fair; Let us strike hands in joyous greeting, And shout for our Seymour and Blair. CROADS. Then huzza for Seymour and Blair, Huzza for Seymeur and Blair.

Time was when our glorious old country, No scalawag dared to impair; And to quickly get rid of such dunces, Let's shout for our Seymour and Blair. CHORUS -Then huzza for Seymour and Blair, &c.

To set carpet-baggers a walking, And scalawags close in their rear : We must all keep continually talking, And vote for our Seymour and Blair. Cuones Then huzza for Seymour and Blair, &c.

Low taxes, good money, and plenty, The Democracy intend all shall share ; As of yore, in this truly, free country, By cleeting our Seymour and Blair. Choavs-Then huzza for Seymour and Blair, &c.

Then farewell to Radical misrule, Farewell to the horrors of war : We have risen from tyranny's footstool. Redeemed by our Seymour and Blair, Cnonus-Then huzza for Seymour and Blair, &c.

HUMOROUS.

A Remarkable Set.

Old farmer Gruff was one morning tugging away with all his might and main at a barrel of apples which he was endeavoring to get up the cellar stairs, and calling at the top of his lungs for one of his boys to lend a helping hand, but

When he had, after an infinite amount of sweating and puffing accomplished his task, and just when they were not needed, of course. "the boys," made their appearance.

"Where have you been, and what have you been about, I'd like to know, that you could not hear me call ?" inquired the father, in an augry tone, and addressing the eldest.

"Out in the shop settin' the saw," replied the youth.

"And you, Dick ?" "Out in the barn settin' the hen."

"And you, sir?"

"Up in Granny's room, settin' the clock." "And you, young man?"
"Up in the garrett settin the trap."

"And now master Fed, where were you, and what were you settln'?" asked the old farmer of his youngest progeny, the asperity of his temper being somewhat softened by his amusing category of answers. "Come let's

" "On the door step settin' still," replied the young hopeful, seriously.

the amused sire, dispersing the grinning group and four beautiful illustrations in Homer's best with a waive of the hand.

RADICAL BILL OF FARE.—The following is the bill of fare of the banquet to which the Radicals invite the people :

No Ment. Old Clothes.

High Taxes for the Poor. No Taxes for the Rich.

Low Wages.

Eternal War. Gold for the Boudholders.

Raga for the People. The Almshouse.

Good morning, Mr. Henpeck," said a prinser in search of female compositors, "have you any daughters that would make good type-

"No; but I have a wife that would make a very fine devil"

"I'm affoat! I'm affoat!" screamed a young lady of powerful lungs and fingers to match, as she exercised both at the piano.

"I should think you were," growled an old bachelor, "judging from the squall you raise."

"Ma" said a little girl to her mother, "do men want to get married as much as the wo-

Pshaw! what are you talking about!" "Why, ma, the women who come here are always talking about getting married; the men don't do so."

A Tough Story .- Aw old fellow who never yielded the palm to any one in reaching a knotty yarn, was put to his trumps at bearing a traveler state that once he saw a brick house placed upon runners, and drawn up a hill to a more favorable location, some half a mile distant.

"What do you think of that, Uncle Eithel?" said the by-standers.

"Oh, fudge," said the old man, "I once saw a two-story stone house, down East, drawn by exen three miles."

A dead silence ensued. The old man evidently had the worse end of it, and he saw it. Cathering his energies, he bit off a huge bite of pig-tail, by way of gaining time for thought: "They drawed the stone house," said the old man, ejecting a quantity of tobacco juice towards the fire-place, "but that wasn't the worst to z of the job-arter they'd done that, they went 1 back and drawed the cellar."

The stranger gave in.

The Elective Franchise.

To the People of South Carolina: It was referred to the State Central Executive Committee, by the late Democratic Convention, to inquire into the disabilities imposed. by reason of the war, upon a portion of our people, restraining them from the exercise of the elective franchise in South Carolina, and to publish the conclusion attained, for the information of the people of the State. The committee in discharge of that duty, announce that they have examined the subject, and beg to state:

1. That no such disabilities now exist by or under the acts of Congress, known as the Reconstruction act, the State having been officially declared to be in the Union.

2. That no such disabilities exist under the so-called amendment, known as the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the disabilities therein expressed having reference to office-holding, and not to voting.

3. That no such disabilities exist by the socalled State Constitution of 1868, under which it is claimed that the State has been reconstructed and restored to the Union.

The undersigned therefore, aunounce that no such disabilities exist by force of any law, or supposed law, or authority whatever; and they urge their hitherto disfranchised fellowcitizens, in every part of the State, to exercise their right to vote at the coming election for President and Vice-President, of which right they have been so long deprived by military power. By order of the.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Go down only upon one knee to a young lady. If you go down upon both you may not be able to escape quick enough in case of the appearance of an enraged father.

The Carolina Farmer

BELIEVING THAT THE INTERESTS OF THE Farmers and Planters of this section demand the publication of a periodical to be be devoted to the advancement of Agriculture in the two Carolinas, we have determined to establish such a periodical under the title of THE CAROLINA FARMER, and will issue the first number as soon as a suffi-and will issue the first number as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers are obtained to pay a reasonable share of the expense of Publication.

The FARMER will be issued monthly at $2 00 per annum, in advance: will contain not less than thirty-two large double column pages of reading matter, bound in handsome covers; and in typographical execution will not be surpassed by any Agricultural Monthly in the country.

Being determined to do whatever energy will accomplish in making the FARMER worthy the support of the intelligent Planters and Farmers of North Carolina and South Carolina; and desiring to introduce it into every county in those States, we wish to employ active Agents at every Postoffice, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered.
